THE DATE FIXED.

High School Alumni Will Banquet on June 30.

The alumni banquet committee met at the Central school building and decided to have the banquet on Thursday evening, June 30. A committee was appointed to arrange for entertainment and to appoint a toastmaster. The committee consisted of Frank Couch, Mrs. Robert Blair, Janette Dryden, Alice Rashleigh, Kathryn Pace, Frank Collins and R. Stanley Retz. Quotations from each of the hotels to entertain the alumni were submitted and the choice was deferred until a copy of their menu could be obtained.

There have been sixteen classes that have been graduated from the high school and a member from each of these classes was selected to interview all the members to ascertain whether or not they will attend the banquet this year. Professor Dryden, by virtue of his position as one of the faculty, was elected an honorary member of the Alumni association and the committee and the committee adjourned to meet Tuesday evening.

THEIR GRAND OPENING.

The Gorgeous Palace Creamery Ready for the Public.

Last evening's rain kept most of the people at home, but several hundred who did venture out were attracted to the Palace creamery by the inspiring strains of the Mozart orchestra, which played for three hours. A beautiful scene was presented to view. The newly finished interior was tastefully trimmed and brilliantly lighted.

An immense $5.00 double sofa fountain was seen by the public for the first time and pronounced one of the finest in the valley. Red, white and blue were the predominant colors about the parlors, the waitresses wore waists of the national shades and the orchestra rendered national airs and martial music. The Palace creamery is a beauty and its opening was fitting. But the weather was bad.

FINED FIFTY DOLLARS.

Mayor O'Neill Imposes Maximum Penalty Upon Thomas Williams.

Thomas Williams was before Mayor O'Neill last evening charged with keeping a tippling and disorderly house on Wayne street near Ninth avenue. He was defended by R. D. Stuart, esq. The mayor imposed the maximum penalty under the ordinance—$50 fine or thirty days in the county jail.

Sentence was subsequently suspended on Attorney Stuart's statement that the ordinance is void owing to the fact that it was never advertised as the law requires of all ordinances to which penalties are attached.

Later Williams gave bail before Alderman Jones on another charge of selling intoxicated drink on Sunday without a license. Chief McAndrew is the prosecutor.

TAYLOR NEWS.

This Evening's Attraction—Tramps Are Annoying—Wedding Anniversary—Personal News.

The Asaph concert company, colored, will appear in the Methodist Episcopal church this evening under the auspices of the Epworth league. W. E. Dorsey, the manager, and the troupe are highly recommended by the pulpit and the press. They will sing the old plantation melodies, comic, classical and sacred music. Marie Morris Dorsey, who is known as the New England nightingale, is said to be one of the sweetest singers of her time. She will render the new patriotic song composed by W. E. Dorsey, entitled the "Wrecking of the Maine."

The Tribune branch office in Taylor is in the Cobble building. Local representative E. G. Evans in charge.

All those who desire to accompany the Reds base ball club to Honesdale on Decoration Day are requested to be at the Delaware and Hudson depot at 6 o'clock sharp Monday morning.

Miss Sadie Gangster, of Hyde Park, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gangster, of North Main street.

Taylor Castle, No. 267, K. of G. E., will meet this evening in Reese's hall.

This town is again being greatly annoyed by knights of the road who hang out in the vicinity of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western branch north of Taylor. The "Weary Willies" make life miserable for the residents of that vicinity by going from door to door daily and acting like burglars. It would be well if our borough police could put an end to this work.

The board of trade will meet this evening in the council chambers. A general invitation is extended to the public.

Superintendent William Storrs, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, was here on business yesterday.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Owens, of Storrs street, was the scene of a most pleasant gathering on Tuesday evening, when a number of their many friends tendered them a reception in honor of their wedding anniversary. The evening hours were pleasantly spent talking about events past and many different amusements. Mr. and Mrs. Owens were the recipients of a number of beautiful presents.

Miss Jessie Beaver, of Hyde Park, was the guest of friends in this place yesterday.

Lackawanna Valley council, No. 81, J. O. U. A. M., will meet this evening in Van Horn's hall.

The musical committee of the Welsh Baptist church have purchased fifty copies of the cantata entitled "Our Flag," which will be performed in the near future by the church choir.

The attention of the supervisors of Lackawanna township is called to a strip of road which extends between this borough and the city. The condition of the road in that vicinity is impassable and should be attended at once.

Don't forget the concert at the M. E. church this evening.

BASE BALL.

Had No Trouble to Defeat the Pittston Reds at Athletic Park.

That the Young Men's Christian association base ball team played all around the Pittston Reds and back again is explained in the detailed diagram of yesterday afternoon's game at Athletic park. The home team, however, was for the association John Brookes played a fast, sure game at second. Steele had remarkably good control and pitched a deceptive game. The crowd of spectators was small. How She Remembered.

"No," said Mrs. Newfille to the new neighbor, "we took a house in the country, but my husband didn't like it, so we came back to town."
"Why didn't he like it?" asked the caller.
"I think he thought it was unhealthy. As soon as we moved in my husband bought a lot of costly chickens (you know he is great hand for fowls), but they all died the second day we had them. In March? No; it was in April. I remember, because I had just bought a lot of Easter egg dyes to feed them so we could have some nice colored eggs."—New York Press.
